FOURTH INTERIM APPLICATION OF O'MELVENY & MYERS LLP FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING AND APPROVING COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT D. DRAIN
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

O'Melveny & Myers LLP ("O'Melveny"), special labor counsel for Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors, and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned case (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby submits its fourth interim application for the interim allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses (the "Fourth Interim Application"), pursuant to sections 330(a)(1) and 331 of Chapter 11, Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), the proposed form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

O'Melveny submits this Fourth Interim Application for (a) allowances of compensation for professional services rendered by O'Melveny to the Debtors, and (b) reimbursement of actual and necessary disbursements incurred by O'Melveny in rendition of required professional services on behalf of the Debtors. In support of the Fourth Interim Application, O'Melveny respectfully represents as follows:

I.
PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. As hereinafter set forth in detail, the activities performed by O'Melveny, in conjunction with the Debtors and the Debtors' other retained professionals, were extensive during the period from October 1, 2006 through January 31, 2007 (the "Fourth Interim Period"), and yielded significant benefits to the estates and their creditors.

2. O'Melveny requests that this Court authorize total compensation to O'Melveny in the amount of $440,122.45, which includes reimbursement of fees in the amount of $151,934.25, including the 20 percent holdback in the amount of $30,986.85, and expenses in the amount of $288,188.20 for the Fourth Interim Period.¹

II.

BACKGROUND

A. The Chapter 11 Filings

3. On October 8, 2005 (the "Initial Filing Date"), Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries (the "Initial Filers") filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On October 14, 2005, three additional U.S. subsidiaries of Delphi (together with the Initial Filers, collectively, the "Debtors") also sought reorganization relief. The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On October 8, 2005 and October 19, 2005, this Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases (Docket Nos. 28 and 404 respectively).

4. On October 17, 2005, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). On April 28, 2006, the U.S. Trustee appointed an official committee of equity security holders (the "Equity Committee"). No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' cases.

5. The Debtors have not yet filed a plan of reorganization or disclosure statement.

6. This Court has jurisdiction over this Fourth Interim Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

7. The statutory predicates for relief requested herein are §§ 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Rule 2016 of the Bankruptcy Rules, and Local Rule 2014-1.

B. Current Business Operations Of The Debtors

8. Delphi had global 2005 net sales of approximately $26.9 billion and global assets as of August 31, 2005 of approximately $17.1 billion.² At the time of its chapter 11 filing, Delphi ranked as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets. Delphi's non-U.S. subsidiaries are not chapter 11 debtors and continue their business operations without supervision from the Bankruptcy Court.

9. Delphi is a leading global technology innovator with significant engineering resources and technical competencies in a variety of disciplines, and is one of the largest global suppliers of vehicle electronics, transportation components, integrated systems and modules, and other electronic technology. Delphi supplies products to nearly every major global automotive original equipment manufacturer.

10. As part of its growth strategy, Delphi has established an expansive global presence with a network of manufacturing sites, technical centers, sales offices, and joint ventures located in every major region of the world. As of the Initial Filing Date, the Debtors employed approximately 180,000 employees worldwide. The Debtors' 50,600 U.S. employees worked in approximately 44 manufacturing sites, 13 technical centers, and Delphi's Troy, Michigan headquarters. Approximately 34,750 of the Debtors' U.S. employees were hourly employees as of the Initial Filing Date, and 96 percent of these were represented by approximately 49 different international and local unions. Outside the United States, Delphi's foreign entities employed more than 134,000 people on the Initial Filing Date, supporting 120 manufacturing sites and 20 technical centers in nearly 40 countries around the globe.

² The aggregated financial data used in this Fourth Interim Application generally consists of consolidated information from Delphi and its worldwide subsidiaries and affiliates.

11. Delphi was incorporated in Delaware in 1998 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of GM. Prior to January 1, 1999, GM conducted Delphi's business through various divisions and subsidiaries. Effective January 1, 1999, the assets and liabilities of these divisions and subsidiaries were transferred to Delphi in accordance with the terms of a Master Separation Agreement between Delphi and GM. In connection with these transactions, Delphi accelerated its evolution from a North American-based, captive automotive supplier to a global supplier of components, integrated systems, and modules for a wide range of customers and applications. Although GM is still Delphi's single largest customer, today more than half of Delphi's revenue is generated from non-GM sources.

C. Events Leading to Chapter 11 Filing

12. In the first two years following Delphi's separation from GM, Delphi generated approximately $2 billion in net income. Every year thereafter, however, with the exception of 2002, Delphi has suffered losses. In calendar year 2004, Delphi reported a net operating loss of $482 million on $28.6 billion in net sales.³ Reflective of a downturn in the marketplace, in 2005 Delphi incurred net losses of approximately $2.8 billion on net sales of $26.9 billion.

13. The Debtors believe that Delphi's financial performance has deteriorated because of: (a) increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and operational restrictions driven by collectively bargained agreements, including restrictions preventing the Debtors from exiting non-strategic, non-profitable operations, all of which have the effect of creating largely fixed labor costs; (b) a competitive U.S. vehicle production environment for domestic OEMs resulting in the reduced number of motor vehicles that GM produces annually in the United States and related pricing pressures; and (c) increasing commodity prices.

14. In light of these factors, Delphi determined that it would be imprudent and irresponsible to defer addressing and resolving its U.S. legacy liabilities, product portfolio, operational issues, and forward looking revenue requirements. Because discussions with its unions and GM were not progressing sufficiently, Delphi commenced these chapter 11 cases for its U.S. businesses to complete the Debtors' transformation plan and preserve value for its stakeholders.

15. Through the reorganization process, the Debtors intend to achieve competitiveness for Delphi's core U.S. operations by modifying or eliminating non-competitive legacy liabilities and burdensome restrictions under current labor agreements and realigning Delphi's global product portfolio and manufacturing footprint to preserve Delphi's core businesses. This requires negotiation with key stakeholders over their respective contributions to the restructuring plan or, absent consensual participation, the utilization of the chapter 11 process to achieve the necessary cost savings and operational effectiveness. The Debtors believe that a substantial segment of Delphi's U.S. business operations must be divested, consolidated, or wound-down during these cases.

16. Upon the conclusion of the reorganization process, the Debtors expect to emerge as a stronger, more financially sound business with viable U.S. operations that are well-positioned to advance global enterprise objectives. In the meantime, Delphi will marshal all of its resources to continue to deliver value and high-quality products to its customers globally. Additionally, Delphi will preserve and continue the strategic growth of its non-U.S. operations and maintain its prominence as the world's premier auto supplier.

III.
RETENTION OF O'MELVENY

17. The Debtors filed their application to employ O'Melveny with the Court on October 8, 2005. O'Melveny charges legal fees on an hourly basis at its attorneys' individual hourly rates, which are based on the attorney's seniority and experience, and which are adjusted from time to time. O'Melveny also charges the Debtors for reasonable and actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred, such as court services, computerized research, delivery services, photocopies, long distance phone calls, fees associated with ongoing litigation, travel and other costs necessarily incurred in connection with its representation of the Debtors.⁴ O'Melveny's fee structure and reimbursement policies were disclosed in the Debtors' application to employ O'Melveny, to which no party objected and this Court approved by order entered on November 4, 2005, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

IV.
FEE PROCEDURES AND MONTHLY FEE STATEMENTS

18. On November 4, 2005, this Court entered an Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures For Interim Compensation And Reimbursement Of Expenses Of Professionals (Docket No. 869) (the "Initial Interim Compensation Order"). On March 8, 2006, this Court entered a Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expense of Professionals (Docket No. 2747) (the "Supplemental Interim Compensation Order"), which, among other things, clarified the deadlines for retained professionals to submit interim and final fee applications. On March 28, 2006, this Court entered a Second Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (Docket

No. 2986) (the "Second Supplemental Interim Compensation Order") extending the deadline for retained professionals to (a) file and serve their first interim fee applications and (b) serve monthly fee statements. On May 5, 2006, this Court entered its Third Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (Docket No. 3630) (the "Third Supplemental Interim Compensation Order"), which established a Fee Review Committee (as defined below), approved a protocol for reviewing fees and reimbursement of expenses sought by retained professionals and further extended the deadline (a) to file and serve the first interim fee application and (b) to serve monthly fee statements. On July 12, 2006, this Court entered its Fourth Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (Docket No. 4545) (the "Fourth Supplemental Interim Compensation Order"), which rescheduled the hearing on the First and Second Interim Fee Applications and further authorized and directed the Debtors to release one-half of the holdback for all periods ended on or before May 31, 2006. On October 13, 2006, this Court entered its Fifth Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (Docket No. 5310) (the "Fifth Supplemental Interim Compensation Order"), which again rescheduled the hearing on the First and Second Interim Fee Applications. On December 11, 2006, this Court entered its Sixth Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (Docket No. 6145) (the "Sixth Supplemental Interim Compensation Order," together with the Initial Interim Compensation Order, Supplemental Interim Compensation Order, Second Supplemental Interim Compensation order, the Third Supplemental Interim Compensation Order, the Fourth Supplemental Interim Compensation Order, and the Fifth Supplemental Interim Compensation, the "Interim Compensation Order"), which rescheduled the hearing on the First, Second and Third Interim Fee Applications, set forth the hearing schedule for the Fourth and Fifth Interim Fee Applications, and further authorized and directed the Debtors to release additional holdback amounts for the First, Second and Third Interim Periods. Additionally, the Sixth Interim Compensation Order provided a procedure for the Fee Review Committee (defined below) and the Retained Professionals to negotiate the allowance of specific fee applications and further authorized and directed the release of all remaining holdback amounts for the First, Second and Third Interim Periods for those professionals who were able to reach consensual settlement.

19. Pursuant to the UST Guidelines, O'Melveny certifies that the Debtors have received a copy of this Fourth Interim Application but have not yet completed their review. In addition, pursuant to paragraph 2(a) and 2(j) of the Interim Compensation Order, as supplemented, as well as the Fee Review Protocol (as defined below), O'Melveny certifies that a copy of this Fourth Interim Application is being served via overnight mail upon (i) the Debtors, (ii) co-counsel for the Debtors, (iii) the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, (iv) the Creditors' Committee, (v) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, (vi) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' postpetition credit facility, (vii) counsel to the Equity Committee, (viii) the members of the Fee Review Committee, and (ix) Legal Cost Control ("LCC"), the Fee and Expense Analyst to the Fee Review Committee. O'Melveny is also serving, concurrently with this filing, notice of the filing of and the hearing on the Fourth Interim Application on parties as required by paragraph 8 of the Interim Compensation Order. O'Melveny submits that no other or further notice need be given.

20. To minimize costs to the Debtors' estates and avoid duplicative efforts in the review of fee applications filed in these Reorganization Cases, the Debtors, the official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"), and the U.S. Trustee negotiated the formation of a joint fee review committee (the "Fee Review Committee") to review, comment on, and if necessary, object to the various fee applications filed in these Reorganization Cases. As part of the Third Supplemental Interim Compensation Order, this Court authorized the establishment of the Fee Review Committee and approved a protocol regarding the Fee Review Committee, its composition, mandate, and procedures (the "Fee Review Protocol"). One aspect of the Fee Review Protocol institutes a series of procedures (the "Budget Procedures") with regard to the submission and review of budgets (each, a "Budget") for professionals working on these Reorganization Cases. Pursuant to the Budget Procedures each professional must prepare and submit to the Fee Review Committee a Budget for professional fees for each application period. As directed by the Fee Review Committee, application of the Budget Procedures was waived through the Third Interim Period, with the first required Budget submission due October 31, 2006 for the time period of October 1, 2006 through January 31, 2007 and the second submission due February 28, 2007 for the time period of February 1, 2007 through May 31, 2007, both of which O'Melveny timely submitted to LCC. The Fee Review Committee held its initial meeting on May 17, 2006. On November 15, 2006, the Fee Review Committee filed its Report Of The Delphi Joint Fee Review Committee Regarding Applications For Award Of Compensation And Reimbursement Of Expenses For The Periods From October 8, 2005 Through January 31, 2006 And February 1, 2006 Through May 31, 2006, And Request That The Court Resolve Dispute With Respect To Fee Committee Statements (Docket No. 5559) (the "Fee Review Committee Report"). On November 28, 2006, the Fee Review Committee filed its Supplemental Report Of The Delphi Joint Fee Review Committee Regarding Applications For Award Of Compensation And Reimbursement Of Expenses For The Periods From October 8, 2005 Through January 31, 2006 And February 1, 2006 Through May 31, 2006, And Request That The Court Resolve Dispute With Respect To Fee Committee Statements (Docket No. 5887) (the "Fee Review Committee Supplemental Report," together with the Fee Review Committee Report, the "Fee Review Committee Reports"). The Fee Review Committee Reports provided certain recommendations concerning the Retained Professionals' fee applications and suggested a schedule for future fee applications. Additionally, LCC issued audit reports containing individualized recommendations concerning each Retained Professionals' fee applications for the First, Second and Third Interim Periods. In compliance with the Sixth Interim Compensation Order, O'Melveny met with the Fee Review Committee and reached a consensual settlement the Committee with regard to the Committee's recommendation to this Court regarding allowance of the First, Second and Third Fee Applications. On February 15, 2007, this Court approved the agreed settlement and authorized and directed the Debtors to release all approved, remaining holdback amounts of professional fees to O'Melveny and other certain Retained Professionals.⁵ As of the date of filing of the Fourth Interim Application, O'Melveny had not yet received payment of the remaining holdback amounts.

21. In compliance with the Interim Compensation Order, on or before the last day of the month following each calendar month for which compensation was sought, O'Melveny served by overnight delivery to (i) the Debtors, (ii) co-counsel for the Debtors, (iii) the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, (iv) counsel for the official committee of unsecured creditors, (v) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, (vi) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' postpetition credit facility, and (vii) the members of the Fee Review Committee a monthly statement of all professional fees and disbursements incurred during the preceding calendar month. The parties had at least 15 days after receipt to review any such statement. In the event any party had an objection to the compensation or reimbursement sought in a particular statement, such person was required to serve the objection no later than the 45th day following the month for which compensation was sought. If there were no objections, at the expiration of the 45 day period, the Debtors were ordered to promptly pay 80 percent of the fees and 100 percent of the expenses identified in each monthly statement. O'Melveny submitted monthly statements for each month during the Fourth Interim Period and no objections were received.

22. O'Melveny received from Debtors a retainer of $300,000 prepetition. Pursuant to the terms of its Engagement Letter, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "C," O'Melveny applied $190,886.56 of that retainer in the First Interim Period and an additional $21,588.19 of that retainer during the Second Interim Period to pay certain invoices of Paycraft Consulting LLC.⁶ No monies, however, were used from the retainer during the Third or Fourth Interim Period, and the retainer balance remains $87,525.25.

⁶ Paycraft Consulting LLC ("Paycraft") was retained by O'Melveny to provide labor costing services to Delphi and, as a result, Paycraft's invoices are sent to O'Melveny and then forwarded to Delphi as a bankruptcy expense on O'Melveny's invoices. In order to expedite payment to Paycraft, O'Melveny paid certain Paycraft invoices out of its retainer with the intent of replenishing the retainer when Delphi reimbursed O'Melveny for the payments. While Delphi has since reimbursed O'Melveny for most of the Paycraft invoices, there are still two invoices outstanding. It is O'Melveny's intent, upon receipt of the funds from Delphi, to replenish the retainer, and seek approval during the applicable fee application period.

23. To the best of O'Melveny's knowledge, information and belief, the Debtors have paid all postpetition expenses in the ordinary course, and there are currently no unpaid, undisputed ordinary course, prepetition operating expenses in these cases.

24. To the best of O'Melveny's knowledge, information and belief, the Debtors have sufficient funds on hand to pay the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested herein.

25. To the best of O'Melveny's knowledge, information and belief, the Debtors have filed with the United States Trustee all monthly operating reports presently due, and have paid all quarterly fees to the United States Trustee which are presently due.

26. O'Melveny is providing in this Fourth Interim Application a general description of services rendered during the Fourth Interim Period. Moreover, the actual time records of each professional are appended as Exhibit "D-1" to the Fourth Interim Application, thereby providing a detailed accounting of the services provided for consideration by the United States Trustee and this Court.

SUMMARY OF COMPENSATION REQUESTED AND SERVICES RENDERED TO THE ESTATES DURING THIS PERIOD⁷

27. O'Melveny seeks approval of professional fees in the amount of $151,934.25 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $288,188.20 for the Fourth Interim Period. In accordance with the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 (Appendix A to 28 C.F.R. § 58), dated May 17, 1996 (the "UST Guidelines"), O'Melveny has classified all services performed for which compensation is sought for this period. Exhibit "E" is a table listing the names of all attorneys and paraprofessionals who have worked for the Debtors during the Fourth Interim Period, and their respective hourly rates and amounts billed, in addition to other summary information required by the UST Guidelines. Exhibit "F" to this Fourth Interim Application sets forth with particularity each category of expenses incurred by O'Melveny on behalf of the Debtors.

28. In staffing this case, in budgeting and incurring charges and disbursements, and in preparing and submitting this Fourth Interim Application, O'Melveny has been mindful of the need to be efficient while providing adequate and vigorous representation to the Debtors. As described in detail herein, O'Melveny believes that the requests made in this Fourth Interim Application comply with this Court's standards in the context of the unique circumstances surrounding these unusually large and complex cases.

29. Pursuant to the Fee Review Protocol, effective October 1, 2006, O'Melveny has recorded all work under using the U.S. Trustee's Project Codes.⁸ All O'Melveny professionals keep a record of the time spent rendering such services in billing increments of one-tenth of an hour.⁹ As noted above, Exhibit "D-1" contains O'Melveny's detailed invoices for this matter number, as sent to the Debtors.

30. The tasks to which O'Melveny gave attention during the Fourth Interim Period are summarized more fully below. Although recitation of every item of professional services that O'Melveny performed would unduly burden the Court, the following summary highlights the major tasks to which O'Melveny devoted substantial time and attention during the Fourth Interim Period.

31. Sections 1113/1114 Advice – Labor (Project Code 10). During the Fourth Interim Period, O'Melveny continued to advise the Debtors regarding all labor aspects of its bankruptcy proceedings, including the Debtors' ongoing efforts to negotiate significant labor cost and employee benefit savings with unions representing the Debtors' hourly employees. As discussions with the unions and other stakeholders continued during the Fourth Interim Period, O'Melveny worked closely with numerous financial, operational and labor relations personnel of the client, as well as advisors to the client, to assist in negotiations strategy, information sharing, and to direct continuing efforts to secure relief from the various bargaining agreements under Sections 1113 and 1114. Specifically, as a part of these efforts, O'Melveny provided extensive advice and counseling on the legal requirements of Sections 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, strategic labor planning, and labor aspects of the Debtors' restructuring and transformation plans. Additionally, O'Melveny analyzed and counseled the Debtors regarding legacy issues with the General Motors Corporation, the effect of a planned investor agreement on potential labor issues and potential union bankruptcy claims, and researched and drafted an opposition motion for filing with this Court.¹⁰ Finally, O'Melveny attended omnibus hearings and status conferences relevant to the labor aspects of the Debtors' bankruptcy proceedings, as well as internal meetings with the Debtors and other advisors, at the Debtors' request.

32. Fee Application – Labor (Project Code 07). During the Fourth Interim Period, O'Melveny prepared the relevant applications for interim allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses and communications with the Fee Review Committee and LCC regarding fees and expenses. The majority of O'Melveny's time recorded under Task Code 07 was dedicated to the preparation of the O'Melveny's Third Interim Application, which application totaled $958,052.25 in fees and $552,004.05 in expenses. In particular, O'Melveny billed 55.5 hours and $14,007.00 in preparing and filing the application. Further, in compliance with the Fee Committee Guidelines, O'Melveny reviewed and timely submitted required monthly and quarterly electronic billing submissions as well as quarterly budget estimates to the Fee Review Committee and LCC. Additionally, O'Melveny worked with the Fee Review Committee and LCC to ensure O'Melveny's compliance with all Fee Committee Protocols and to discuss certain fee and expense issues in advance of the February 15, 2007 hearing on the First, Second and Third Interim Applications.

33. In aggregate, attorneys and paraprofessionals at O'Melveny billed an aggregate of 319.95 hours working on behalf of the Debtors during the Fourth Interim Period. As noted above, Exhibit "E" sets forth the name, hourly rate, hours billed, and total fees incurred by each O'Melveny attorney and paraprofessional during this time.

VI. LIST OF EXPENSES

34. In connection with its representation of the Debtors during the Fourth Interim Period, O'Melveny advanced necessary expenses totaling $288,188.20.¹¹ A detailed description of expenses incurred during the case is attached hereto as Exhibit "F".

35. O'Melveny requests reimbursement for expenses including costs advanced for computerized research, delivery services, photocopies, long distance phone calls, fees associated with ongoing litigation, travel, and other costs necessarily incurred in connection with its representation of the Debtors. O'Melveny made every effort to limit expenditures and to use the most economical means available for accomplishing the tasks requiring such expenditures.

36. Of the expenses, copying charges total $887.70. O'Melveny's standard in-house charge for photocopying is $0.15 per page. The Debtors, however, are charged only $0.10 per page.

37. O'Melveny also incurred costs for sending correspondence regarding the case. O'Melveny charges $1.25 per page for outgoing facsimiles plus long distance phone charges, if applicable, but does not charge for incoming facsimiles. The Debtors, however, have not been charged for facsimiles other than for long distance charges associated with the transmissions. O'Melveny attempted to avoid overnight delivery expenses whenever possible.

38. In addition to the above expenses, O'Melveny incurred expenses in connection with the travel of its attorneys, including travel to relevant omnibus hearings and status conferences before this Court in New York City. These airfare and travel-related expenses totaled $1,532.96.¹² In addition, O'Melveny's standard practice is to charge for 100 percent of travel time, which is also the charge for non-bankruptcy clients generally. The Debtors, however, are charged for only 50 percent of travel time.¹³

VII. HOURLY RATES

39. The hourly rates of all professionals and paraprofessionals rendering services in this case for the Fourth Interim Period are set forth in Exhibit "E". O'Melveny submits that these rates are reasonable and within the range of customary rates in the Southern District of New York for professionals of similar experience and expertise in cases other than those under title 11. Exhibit "E" also sets forth the year of admittance to each attorney's bar, the number of hours billed during the Fourth Interim Period, and the total fees attributable to each professional and paraprofessional, as well as other summary information required by the UST Guidelines.

40. O'Melveny sought to control its fees by administering the case efficiently and coordinating the efficient prosecution of matters. Staffing of matters within the case was done with the intent to provide the optimal level of representation given the importance and complexity of a particular matter, and to avoid duplication of other professional efforts, including those of bankruptcy counsel Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom (Illinois).

VIII. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. The Legal Standard

41. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330, as applies to final allowances, to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court should consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; [and] . . .
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

42. To grant a request for compensation, this Court must find that such request is reasonable. The Second Circuit, in evaluating the reasonableness of a requested fee, has adopted the twelve-factor test of Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974), which includes such factors as the time and labor involved; the novelty and difficulty of the questions; the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; customary fee; the amount involved and the results obtained; experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys; and awards in similar cases. See United States Football League v. Nat'l Football League, 887 F.2d 408, 425 (2d Cir. 1989) (awarding plaintiffs-appellees attorney's fees against defendants-appellants for work done in connection with an antitrust suit). The reasonableness of a compensation request is determined by taking into account the nature, extent and value of the services provided by the professional and the cost of comparable services. See Colbert v. Furumoto Realty, Inc., 144 F. Supp. 2d 251, 260 (S.D.N.Y. 2001); see also Zolfo, Cooper & Co. v. Sunbeam-Oster Co., 50 F.3d 253 (3d Cir. 1995); In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctr., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 849 (3d Cir. 1994).¹⁴

¹⁴ In the "market-driven approach" to compensation requests, the primary focus of the inquiry is the cost of comparable services in non-bankruptcy contexts. See Zolfo, Cooper, & Co., v. Sunbeam-Oster Co., 50 F.3d 253, 258; see also In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctr., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 849-50; In re Fine Paper Antitrust Litig., 751 F.2d

B. O'Melveny's Fees Are Reasonable

43. The professional services rendered by O'Melveny during the Fourth Interim Period required a high degree of professional competence and expertise. The provision of such services, therefore, has required the expenditure of substantial time and effort. O'Melveny submits that the services rendered were performed efficiently, effectively and economically and that the results obtained thus far have provided a significant benefit to the estates of the Debtors and their creditors.

44. In accordance with its practice in other matters, O'Melveny has utilized the lodestar method for calculating its compensation requested in this Fourth Interim Application. There is a strong presumption that the lodestar product is reasonable. See Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizens' Council for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546, 565 (1986); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991).

45. In awarding attorneys' fees, courts will also consider whether the services rendered were reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate. See e.g., In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 76 F.3d 66, 71 (2d Cir. 1996), rev'd on other grounds, Lamie v. United States Trustee, 540 U.S. 526 (2004); In re Granite Partners, L.P., 213 B.R. 440, 447 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997); In re Drexel Lambert Group, 133 B.R. at 22. Thus, the Court should focus on what a reasonable lawyer would have done at the time and not invoke a hindsight analysis.

[I]t is important for a court to maintain a sense of overall proportion and not become enmeshed in meticulous analysis of every detailed facet of the professional representation. It is easy to speculate that the work could have been done in less time or with fewer attorneys or with an associate rather than a partner. On the other hand, it is also possible that [the debtor] would not have enjoyed the success it did had its counsel managed matters differently.

562, 583 (3d Cir. 1984) ("[t]he value of an attorney's time generally is reflected in his normal billing rate"). This market-based approach permits flexibility in billing arrangements. The "lodestar" method (hourly rate multiplied by hours worked) is currently the most widely utilized method for compensation arrangements, but regardless of the manner in which compensation is calculated, "[t]he baseline rule is for firms to receive their customary rates." Zolfo, Cooper, 50 F.3d at 259.

Boston & Maine Corp. v Moore, 776 F.2d 2, 10 (1st Cir. 1985) (citations omitted).

46. O'Melveny's fees during the Fourth Interim Period were reasonable under the prevailing legal standard and should be allowed. The amount of these fees is not unusual given the size of the Debtors' business and the capacity in which O'Melveny served as special counsel. These fees are commensurate with fees that O'Melveny and other attorneys of comparable experience and expertise have charged for similar services.

C. O'Melveny's Expenses Were Actual And Necessary

47. Section 330(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code permits reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses. Moreover, reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses is permitted in the Second Circuit. Accordingly, attorney's fees awards include those reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by attorneys and ordinarily charged to their clients. See United States Football League, 887 F.2d at 416; see also Kuzma v. IRS, 821 F.2d 930, 933-34 (2d Cir. 1987) see also Zolfo, Cooper, 50 F.3d at 258. As noted above, O'Melveny has conducted a review to ensure compliance of expenses with the UST Guidelines. Accordingly, those expenses for which reimbursement is sought in this Application satisfy the standards set forth in section 330(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code as well as in United States Football League and Kuzma, and should therefore be allowed.

IX.

DESCRIPTION OF PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

48. The biographies of the primary attorneys¹⁵ employed by O'Melveny who rendered services in this case are attached as Exhibit "G".

¹⁵ As noted in Exhibit "G", biographies are provided for only those primary attorneys employed by O'Melveny who billed more than $10,000 in fees to the Debtors during the Fourth Interim Period.

NO SHARING OF COMPENSATION

49. No agreement has been made, directly or indirectly, and no understanding exists, for a division of compensation herein between O'Melveny and any other person or persons, contrary to any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the local rules or state law.

XI.
COMPLIANCE WITH THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE GUIDELINES, THE LOCAL GUIDELINES, AND THE INTERIM COMPENSATION ORDER

50. As set forth in the Certification of Tom A. Jerman With Respect To The Fourth Interim Application of O'Melveny & Myers LLP For Order Authorizing And Approving Compensation And Reimbursement Of Expenses (attached hereto as Exhibit "H"), O'Melveny has complied fully with the UST Guidelines, the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the "Local Guidelines"), and the Interim Compensation Order, to the extent applicable.

XII.
NOTICE OF THIS FOURTH INTERIM APPLICATION

51. In compliance with the Interim Compensation Order, notice of the filing of this Fourth Interim Application will be provided to all parties who have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of this Court and requested notice of pleadings in these chapter 11 cases. In addition, the Fourth Interim Application in its entirety will be served on the following parties: (i) Delphi Corporation, 5725 Delphi Drive, Troy, Michigan 48098 (Att'n: David Sherbin), (ii) counsel to the Debtors, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, 333 West Wacker Drive, Suite 2100, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (Att'n: John Wm. Butler, Jr.), (iii) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 425

Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017 (Att'n: Kenneth S. Ziman), (iv) counsel for the agent under the postpetition credit facility, Davis Polk & Wardwell, 450 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017 (Att'n: Donald Bernstein and Brian Resnick), (v) counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Latham & Watkins LLP, 885 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022 (Att'n: Robert J. Rosenberg and Mark A. Broude), (vi) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, 33 Whitehall Street, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10004 (Att'n: Alicia M. Leonhard), (vii) counsel to the Equity Committee, Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP, One New York Plaza, New York, New York, 10004 (Attn: Bonnie Steingart), (viii) the members of the Delphi Fee Review Committee, and (ix) LCC, 255 Kings Highway East, Haddonfield, New Jersey, 08033 (Attn: John J. Marquess). In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Debtors submit that no other or further notice is required.

XIII.
MEMORANDUM OF LAW

52. Because the legal points and authorities upon which this Motion relies are incorporated herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the requirement of the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law under Local Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York be deemed satisfied.

XIV.
CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, O'Melveny requests that this Court authorize and approve the compensation in the amount of $151,934.25, including the 20 percent Holdback in the amount of $30,986.85, and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $288,188.20 for the Fourth Interim Period. O'Melveny also requests that this Court grant such further relief as may be deemed just and proper.
